Conditions of participation

- Registration: You will receive a letter of confirmation directly after the forwarding of your registration and/or receipt of the pre-payment
- Payment: The outstanding payment is due 35 days before travelling date; the exact date will be stated in the confirmation letter.
- Resignation conditions: Before travelling begins, the customer can withdraw at any time from the journey. A written explanation for a resignation is required, date of fax or postal stamp is considered as resignation date. We charge the following cancellation fees:
Up to 35 days prior departure date 35% from price.
15 days prior departure date 50% from price.
Up to 15 to 7 days prior to departure date 80% of the price.
7 days prior to departure date 90% of the price.
The entire fee is charged when cancellation takes place 3 days prior up to actual departure day.
We recommend a travel insurance for possible cancellations. No valid claims for immediate repayment can be made against the organizer in the case of a cancellation of the Festival.
- Liability: No claims except for immediate repayment can be made against the organizer in the case of a cancellation of the Festival. If a teacher is unable to come or has further restrictions, the organizer is free in her choice of replacement. The organizer can also make necessary short-term changes in the Fringe Events. In both cases the customer does not have further claims.
- Responsibility: Each participant carries the full responsibility for its own actions, both during the courses and in the spare time. Any health problems have to be disclosed to the course leaders.
Each participant is also responsible for damage to the property of our contracting parties in and outside of the group caused by him/herself.
The local bus and transportation agencies are completely responsible for the transports during the excursions.
- Passport-, visa-, customs-regulations: The participants themselves are responsible for the observance of custom & visa duties. Disadvantages, which arise from their disregard, are debited to the participant.

Jurisdiction area is Duisburg.
